

Feis in the Forest An Irish Music Festival

Saturday, September 23rd, 2017

The 2017 Raleigh Irish Music Festival is being held on South Taylor Street in downtown Wake Forest from 3p-10p. This free family-friendly festival will include Celtic bands, Irish dancers, Gaelic sports demos, a seisún tent, a kids' area, Celtic canines, vendors, food trucks and so much more!

This festival is for everyone! Whether you're Irish or not is of little consequence. Your spirit, your smile and your heart are the important things. The Irish place high value on the family and urge you to make this a family affair. Bring your lawn chairs and make some new friends!!

All musicians and dancers at the festival are donating their time and talent for free. If they bring a smile to your face or a tear to your eye, please let them know they are appreciated. They perform because they want to share their love of Irish culture and music with as wide an audience as possible.

Festival Sponsorship

The Ancient Order of Hibernians is organizing an Irish Music Festival in downtown Wake Forest on Saturday, September 23rd, 2017.

We are seeking corporate sponsors to help defray the costs of organizing this event which will allow us to maximize the funds raised that will be donated to local charities.

This year's Charity Partner is TRI-AREA MINISTRY (TAM) Food Pantry which is a non-profit, non-denominational, 100% volunteer run organization with a mission to provide food to eligible clients in the Wake Forest, Rolesville and Youngsville area. TAM is the largest Food Pantry in the Wake Forest, Youngsville, and Rolesville area serving 750 families each month.

Please consider supporting this worthy cause in any way possible.
